 3. Approval of Agenda – Motion to approve Agenda Jeff Christensen, 2nd Chuck Youngquist. Motion carries.
 4. Approval of Minutes of May 13, 2026 – Motion to approve minutes Cody Eagle, 2nd Jeff Christensen. Motion carries.
 5. Public Comments – Steve Trainer (Wascott) Transfer employees are doing a great job even with policy changes.
 6. Specific matters for discussion and possible action by the Town Boards in open session:

EMS

- a) Financial Reports. – Revenue is down and need to keep an eye on it. Starting out 2026 with a budget of $98,355.00 not using any of that money to balance the budget. Budget was balanced by total revenues and total expenditures. Bring to attention the patient revenues and subsidy payments. In budget status we are good until the end of the month.
- b) Discuss Medical Director Contract. At this time is a generic contract, when this approved and signed the wording will be entering in the G/W information will be entered. Will need to have Special meeting to adjust the budget. Motion to approve the EMS Medical Director Agreement Jenny Liautaud, 2nd Jeff Christensen. Motion carries.
- c) Discuss Special Events Contract. – Motion to wave Special Events fees for GGND, Food and Fun Days, and build the cost of EMS crew members into the budget. Motion to approve Chuck Youngquist, 2nd Jeff Christensen. Motion carries.

Transfer Station

- a) T/S Update. Everything is going great. The policy changes brought up earlier was just a temporary change to close the free section made by the liaisons. Charge for everything that cannot go in as regular trash.
- b) Financial Report – Doing about even on all areas in the budget. Waste Management overcharged on a few things and we will be getting back $1,115.76. Craig Golembiewski we will be getting bids on crack sealing the road going into the Transfer Station.
- c) Discuss adding a Sharps disposal container provided by Douglas County. Motion to approve installing container Craig Golembiewski, 2nd Cody Eagle. Motion carries.

7. Adjournment. 7:30pm Motion to adjourn Craig Golembiewski, 2nd Jeff Christensen. Motion carries.
